The dispositional order is reversed, and the matter is remanded to the Yolo County Juvenile Court for the limited purpose of affording the minor the opportunity to move to withdraw his admissions. If the minor so moves and the court grants the motion, the matter shall proceed as if no plea had been entered. If the court denies the motion, or if the motion is not made, the court shall reinstate the disposition. Although we are returning the matter to the Yolo County Juvenile Court, we offer no view as to which is the proper forum, i.e., Yolo County or Shasta County, for the minor to make his motion.
